Advocating medical homeopathy

REDISCOVER THE ART OF MEDICINE

Tired of ticking boxes? Rediscover the Art of Medicine by integrating homeopathy alongside your conventional practice.

A reception and course launch from 19.30-21.30 on Tuesday 17 October 2017 in Belfast. Refreshments will be provided at the venue.

Discover...

- Key homeopathic principles and their application alongside conventional medicine
- The benefits of practising homeopathy for clinician and patient
- How homeopathy is applied in modern practice
- How to progress your career with homeopathy
- How the Faculty of Homeopathy can support your development

Who will I meet?

You will have the chance to meet qualified pharmacists and Faculty members, Eoghan O'Brien and Anne Smyth, along with Dr Gary Smyth, who sits on the Faculty Council and was a finalist for ACW's Diversified Medic of the Year award in 2016.

Who should attend?

This event is open to any statutorily regulated healthcare professionals, students of medical/science disciplines and anyone with an interest in medical innovation or complementary and alternative medicine.

About Us

The Faculty of Homeopathy is a professional association of clinicians, founded in 1844 and incorporated by an Act of Parliament in 1950. We ensure the highest standards in homeopathic education and practice and in 2013 became an official designated body for the GMC revalidation of doctors.
